THE ART OF BOOK FOLDING Goleta Library to Offer Adult Workshop on the Paper-Folding Art

SANTA BARBARA, CA – January 5, 2012

Have you heard about the upcoming new art form called book folding? The Santa Barbara Public Library System invites adults to the Goleta Library to learn the fundamentals of folding book pages to form sculptural works of art. This program takes place Saturday, January 28th at 2:30 P.M. The Goleta Library is located at 500 North Fairview Avenue, Goleta. Pre-registration is required. For more information call Allison Gray at the library, 805-964-7878.

Book folding is a creative hobby that incorporates repurposing old books by making origami-like folds in their pages to form representational or abstract works of art. The library will supply the books for the workshop. Attendees should be prepared to have some fun making folded books, suitable for display on a wall or shelf.

For a complete list of library programs and locations, visit the Santa Barbara Public Library System's web site at www.SBPLibrary.org. All Library programs are FREE and open to the public.
